Poetry Festival

Don't you hear this hammer ring?
I'm gonna split this rock
And split it wide!
When I split this rock,
Stand by my side.
- Langston Hughes

2016 Registration Form

Split This Rock Poetry Festival: Poems of Provocation & Witness 2016 invites poets, writers, activists, and dreamers to Washington, DC for four days of poetry, community building, and creative transformation. Featuring readings, workshops, panel discussions, youth programming, parties, and activism, the festival offers opportunities to speak out for justice, build connection and community, and celebrate the many ways poetry can act as an agent for social change.

FESTIVAL DATES: Thursday, April 14 to Sunday April 17, 2016

Plus Juan Felipe Herrera, Poet Laureate of the United States, kicks off the festival with a special event at the Library of Congress on April 13!

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 2016

IF SUBMITTING BY MAIL: POSTMARK BY THURSDAY MARCH 24, 2016

A limited number of scholarships and group rates are available. Volunteers who serve for 5 or more hours receive free registration. For details, visit our website or email poetryfest@splitthisrock.org.
